

REMARKS

The above amendments are entered to correct clerical or typographical errors that appeared in the numbering of the original claims. In the claims as filed with the application, the numbers 50 and 72 were used twice, thereby reducing the number of claims by two.

This error was noted at the time the application was being prepared for filing so that the excess claims fee for 92 claims was paid. No additional fee is believed to be due.

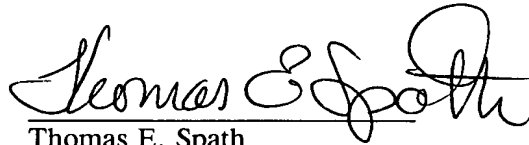

In the event that a fee is found to be due in connection with this amendment, the Office is authorized to charge this firm's deposit account number 01-0035.

Prompt entry of the amended claims and their examination is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,
